Our Aim: To uphold and to protect the cause of Occupational Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Place

To ensure safety, health, welfare and good working conditions for workers working in factories and in construction establishments and effective enforcement of provisions of the Factories Act, the Building & Other Const. Workers Act and other labour legislations to prevent exploitation of workers.

Welcome to Director Industrial Safety and Health

The history of Factories Act is more than 100 years old. First time the Indian Factories Act was enacted in 1881. After independence, 'The Factories Act, 1948' was made applicable in the country mainly to regulate health, safety, welfare and working conditions of Industrial workers. It has been amended from time to time but the major amendments were enacted in 1976 and in 1987. The Act covers all types of factories, mines, oil refineries, chemical plants, etc.
