

Circular 10/2006 has been issued detailing the necessary documents, security deposit, inspection procedures and checklists. This has also been published in the website of the Department. This information is also disseminated through notice boards at offices and through the helpline. Further there is well defined procedure for inspection of business places as part of the enforcement action.